COVID Information Zoom Presentation available for our congregation.

Given the anxiety over COVID, how it is passed and caught, we might be very unsure as to what we can and cannot do during these times. Public Health has given us guidelines and we need to be following their recommendations. While we know what we shouldn't be doing, we are not always clear as to why. And, subsequently, we are not always sure what we can do. So, we've asked a couple of our medical people at Grace, Carmel Wiebe and Curtis Krahn, to join us for a Zoom gathering to inform us more thoroughly in regards to this. They shared among other things, an overview how viruses work and how they don't, the rationale behind why masks, and physical distancing work. If interested, contact Kyle Penner for the link for this zoom conversation held this past week.

If you like to financially support MCC's work in supporting those who have lived through Hurricanes Eta and Iota, you can do so

Canadian Mennonite is a periodical that connects us as a church across the country. It provides channels for sharing accurate and fair information, faith profiles, inspirational/educational materials, church news, opinion columns, and analysis of issues. We seek to build up relationships across the church. Subscriptions are available in print and digital formats and are paid for collectively by Mennonite Church Manitoba.

Under the Canadian Mennonite Every Home Plan, everyone who attends our church is eligible to subscribe. Many from our church have been subscribing for years, but we want to ensure that newcomers to our church also have access to the magazine. If interested please contact the Grace office @

Grace ZOOM Adult Formation on Naming God: Missing Mother Metaphors

The biblical text contains many metaphorical references to God as our Father, but it also contains many metaphors of God as our mother, doing what only mothers can. However, these metaphors have been historically ignored by the church, thereby deeply shaping both our conscious and subconscious understandings and experiences of God in ways that are profoundly limiting. To broaden and enrich our understandings of God, we will explore the many missing metaphors of God as mother.

In this two-part series, Val Hiebert,
Assistant Professor of Sociology at Providence University College, will first lead us in an anthropological exploration of the power and influence of language on Tuesday, November 24.

She will then immerse us in the biblical metaphors for God as mother on Tuesday, December 1.

Come and See

Come and see,
Come and see,
I am the way and the truth, said he.
Follow me,
Follow me,
come as a child,
O come and see.
Christe, Christe, adoramus te.
Alleluia, Kyrie eleison.

Children of the Heavenly father

Verse 1

Children of the Heavenly Father
Safely in His bosom gather
Nestling bird nor star in Heaven
Such a refuge e'er was given

Verse 2

God his own doth tend and nourish,
In his holy courts they flourish.
From all evil things he spares them,
In his mighty arms he bears them.

Verse 3

Neither life nor death shall ever
From the Lord His children sever
Unto them His grace He showeth
And their sorrows all He knoweth

Verse 4

Though He giveth or He taketh
God His children ne'er forsaketh
His the loving purpose solely
To preserve them pure and holy

You shall go out with joy

Verse

You shall go out with joy
And be led forth with peace
The mountains and the hills
Will break forth before you
There'll be shouts of joy
And all the trees of the field
Will clap will clap their hands

Chorus

And all the trees of the field
Will clap their hands
The trees of the field
Will clap their hands
The trees of the field
Will clap their hands
While you go out with joy
