Naming God: Missing Mother Metaphors

The biblical text contains many metaphorical references to God as our Father, but it also contains many metaphors of God as our mother, doing what only mothers can. However, these metaphors have been historically ignored by the church, thereby deeply shaping both our conscious and subconscious understandings and experiences of God in ways that are profoundly limiting. To broaden and enrich our understandings of God, we will explore the many missing metaphors of God as mother.

In this two-part series, Val Hiebert,
Assistant Professor of Sociology at Providence University College, She will immerse us in the biblical metaphors for God as mother on Tuesday, December 1.

dates: <https://prov.zoom.us/j/95794383226>

Advent at Grace

Today Advent, the four Sundays before Christmas, begins. Begins differently than usual. Who'd have thought?

Well, who'd have thought, or not, here we are. And, despite not being together, we are. So, together we will share Advent and Christmas as a faith community. In ways different, yes. But in ways still good, meaningful and life giving because, while so much is missing, we, the story and God are still here.

Advent is a time of waiting. But, we're waiting a lot these days. Waiting for the NHL season to start, for COVID numbers to drop, for isolation to end, for vaccines, for hope. So, we won't wait to get into the story this year. Rather, we'll tell the Christmas Story throughout Advent. And, we'll tell it chronologically, getting to the birth story before Christmas Day.

We'll worship with a beautifully visualized message on the stage and bulletin cover, telling us that we're on the road to Bethlehem. That is, on the road to God and God's work among us in Jesus. We'll be on that road with prayers, songs, stories, candles, reflection and sharing.

On line for now. We don't plan much in advance these days so we won't even speculate for how long that will be. But, however we are together, we hope that being here, with each other, at Advent and Christmas will give us smiles, joy and hope as we are with each other and God in this special time of year. Even when it might not seem as special as we'd like. No, it might not be. But, we will gather. In hope, in faith and in love. Because...

God,
in Jesus here you are,
here we are,
here we are together with you and those you love...

Advent Activity

Just because we're at home, doesn't mean we can't be together. Or, that we can't be doing something together. Here are four ways you can enjoy Advent and Christmas at Grace.

1. Of course, come to Worship. This is a very enjoyable and meaningful time of Community Worship and Gathering. Because we are not in the building to see the candles being lit, we're suggesting that you have four advent candles ready in your home as each week as Candle Lighting will be part of Worship.
2. You can participate in the Reverse Advent Calendar. Details in the bulletin and via Constant Contact.
3. You can come together with others for a weekly Advent Devotional. In place of the usual prayers, we'll be doing short devotionals with writings from Henri Nouwen, a scripture passage, prayer and daily action at 7:15 am and 9:15 pm each Wednesday. Follow the link. (I know I'm late on this, but if you'd like to order the book it's 'Advent and Christmas Wisdom from Henri J.M Nouwen')
4. We used to have a 'Stories with Seniors' Bible Study once a month at church. Well, we're going to have an Advent 'Stories with Seniors' (or whoever wants to join!). Each Thursday morning at 10:00 am we'd invite you to grab your coffee and Christmas cookies and join us online to talk about the Biblical and Personal stories from the Sunday before. Again, follow the link.

Reverse Advent Calendar collection for Steinbach Community Outreach

This year Outreach would like to encourage anyone who is able, to participate in a Reverse Advent Calendar collection for Steinbach Community Outreach. Each day during the season of Advent from Dec 1–24 we are asking you to collect an item off the attached list and add it to a box that you can bring to our church between Dec 28–31. Team up with another family to fill a box if that is more doable or how about grandparents working together to fill a box with their grandchildren. We will also have some boxes in the entry way at Grace so if you want to bring individual items from the list feel free to drop them off in the boxes any time the church is open. In this season of Advent let our prayers of waiting be actions of giving. Thank you !

O Come O Come Immanuel

O come O come Emmanuel
And ransom captive Israel
That mourns in lonely exile here
Until the Son of God appear

Chorus

Rejoice rejoice Immanuel
Shall come to thee O Israel

O come, thou Rod of Jesse,
Free thine own from Satan's tyranny.
From depths of hell they people save,
And give them victory o'er the grave.

O come Thou Dayspring come and cheer
Our spirits by Thine advent here
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night
And death's dark shadows put to flight

O come, thou Key of David, come and open wide our heavenly home.
Make safe the way that leads on high,
and close the path to misery.

O come Thou Wisdom from on high
And order all things far and nigh
To us the path of knowledge show
And cause us in her ways to go

O come Desire of nations bind
All peoples in one heart and mind
Bid envy strife and quarrels cease
Fill the whole world with heaven's peace

One Bright Star

Verse 1

Suddenly my eyes were dazzled
I could hardly see at all
The music in my ears

Such a heav'nly call
As I stood I felt a wonder
That I've never felt before
Although my heart was full
I just wanted more

Verse 2

And then as we shepherds listened
We heard angels sing on high
Our Saviour had been born
Praises filled the sky
So the celebration started
As the life of Christ began
The King of love was born
For the sake of man

Chorus 1

One bright star shone out that night
Bringing hope to all mankind
One bright star shone out to say He is born
One bright star that promised peace
And no more fighting
One bright star
Just one bright star
Just one bright star to take us there

Verse 3

Then we knew just what to do
So we ran to find the child
To seek the new born King
Welcome him in style
And we gave our minds and hearts
On this very special night
To baby Jesus
Son of Man and God's pure light

Chorus 2

One bright star shone out that night
Bringing hope to all mankind
One bright star shone out to say He is born
One bright star that promised peace
And no more fighting
One bright star
One bright star
Just one bright star
One bright star
Just one bright star to take us there

Magnificat - Holy is His Name

Chorus

And holy holy holy is His name
And holy holy holy is His name
And holy holy holy is His name
And holy holy holy is His name

Verse 1

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord
And my Spirit exults in God my Saviour
For He has looked with mercy on my lowliness
And His name will be forever exalted
For the mighty God has done great things for me
And His mercy will reach from age to age

Verse 2

He has mercy in ev'ry generation
He has revealed His power and His glory
He has cast down the mighty in their arrogance
And has lifted up the meek and the lowly
He has come to help His servant Israel
He remembers His promise to our fathers
